The image shows a screenshot of a web application window titled "Customer Monthly Sales". The window contains a form for filtering data. At the top, the title "Customer Monthly Sales" is displayed in a large blue font. Below the title, there is a section labeled "Dates" which contains two input fields: "Starting Date" and "Ending Date", both of which are set to "12/23/2009". Below these fields is a grid of buttons for selecting different time periods: "Yesterday", "Current Day", "Last Week", "Current Week", "Last Month", "Current Month", "Last Year", and "Current Year". Below this grid is a button labeled "All Dates". Underneath the "Dates" section is a "Customer ID:" label followed by an empty text input field. Below the input field are two radio button options: "Print Preview" (which is selected) and "Export to Excel". At the bottom of the form is a button labeled "Customer Monthly Sales".
